THANK YOU!

For nine days, the world witnessed the courage, determination and joy of 6,500 Special Olympics athletes from 165 countries competing in Los Angeles.

Whether they stood on the top of the podium or were brave in the attempt, our athletes educated millions that it is their abilities which define them, not their disability.

To our generous sponsors and donors, more than 100 Host Town communities, the thousands of volunteers and Fans in the Stands, the record number of media members from 83 nations, and all other Special Olympics supporters, we thank each of you for taking part in this historic event. Through you, we have built the awareness that leads to acceptance and inclusion for those with intellectual disabilities.

Thank you for Reaching Up LA!
